Post Adoption Support Services

Relationships Australia
SOUTH AUSTRALIA™

What is Post Adoption Support Services?

Post Adoption Support Services (PASS) offer services which respond to the needs of those whose lives include adoption, both local adoption and intercountry adoption. This includes birth parents and families, people who have been adopted and adoptive parents and families.

Our service is respectful of people's differing choices and opinions, and we acknowledge and value the diverse experiences of those affected by adoption.

Post Adoption Support Services is a program of Relationships Australia (SA).

What can PASS provide?

PASS runs seminars and workshops throughout the year, addressing a broad range of adoption-related topics such as:

- Parenting
- Search and reunion
- Identity and family making
- Insights into adoption
- Plus many more.

We also provide:

- Information on a broad range of adoption issues
- Referral to adoption-friendly services
- Face to face and telephone counselling on adoption related matters
- Support and assistance in searching for birth families, either local or inter-country
- Support and mediation with family reunions
- Links to adoption community groups
- Support groups for people affected by adoption
- A bookshop and library with a large collection of adoption related items.

Professional Development Training

PASS also provides professional development on adoption-related issues for counsellors, social workers and professionals working with and/or interested in adoption-related issues.

For more information and to be placed on our mailing list, please contact PASS directly or complete and return the form in this brochure.

Who are we?

Nikki Hartmann is the Senior Coordinator of Post Adoption Support Services. Nikki brings considerable experience in community services, skills in community development work, and experience as a trainer working in professional development. She has postgraduate qualifications in counselling.

Sandi Petersen is a part time Coordinator of Inter-country Post Adoption Support. She has been actively involved in the inter-country adoption sector for a number of years and is a registered nurse with postgraduate counselling qualifications.
