Study community services in 2015

The Australian Institute of Social Relations will be holding information sessions in Adelaide on the nationally recognized training programs offered in 2015. The sessions will give you the opportunity to find out what it's like to study at the Institute, as well as provide you with information about the qualifications and courses offered in 2015. Hear from our trainers and former students, and talk with our staff about developing a study plan that suits your needs.
