St Andrew's Hospital lawns Garden Gathering, 10am-noon.

Up to 100 local residents are partnering with St Andrew's Hospital and having a party in the hospital's gorgeous gardens.

Other events include lunches in Hurtle Square, Light Square and Himeji Gardens

IDEA BREWED

Suspended coffee (or Espresso Sospeso) originated in Naples, Italy. The idea is simple - someone goes into a cafe, and pre-purchases a coffee. Then someone in need can then go into the business and receive a coffee for free. Paying it forward, one coffee at a time.

Say yes to city Neighbour Day

Being based at Eliza St means cafe Hello, Yes is practically neighbours with those living in the apartments on Waymouth St. This includes Uno Apartments, a Housing SA complex, which includes 30 apartments for vulnerable, homeless youths.

It's why cafe owner, Georgia Cromarty, will ensure everyone is involved when she hosts the Eliza St party this week to coincide with Neighbour Day.

"We do a suspended coffee program, where people can buy a coffee for someone in need," Ms Cromarty says.

"So we're doing suspended coffees and bagels with the kids from Uno, so they can be involved as well.

"We're looking forward to that aspect of it and bringing all people together."

The party will take over the corner of Eliza and Waymouth streets on Sunday, from 11am-4pm, and include live music from residents and musicians, children's activities and stallholders including Mischief Brew Coffee, Crackle & Pop Records and loca pops.

It is one of the 11 Neighbour Day events going on across the city and North Adelaide.

For Ms Cromarty, who lives in a city apartment, the street party is a way to bond residents and businesses of the community.

Although Ms Cromarty doesn't have many neighbours, she does admit she lives near a pretty generous woman.

"We were just drinking one night and I was whingeing because I love baths and I don't have one at home, and she said, 'you can use my bath anytime,'" she says.

"And that is just fantastic - that is a great neighbour."

Georgia Cromarty runs Hello, Yes cafe and is set to host the Eliza St party this week, to coincide with Neighbour Day, one of the 11 events going on across the city and North Adelaide.
