

Post Care Support Services

Relationships Australia.
SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Who we are

Post Care Support Services (PCSS) provides case management, counselling, information and advocacy, to support young people and adults who have lived in out-of-home care and /or have been placed under the Guardianship of the Minister in South Australia as a child for more than six months. We recognise that people, during their time in care, may have both negative and positive experiences. Our service is committed to provide non-judgmental, respectful, confidential and culturally appropriate services in a safe environment to you with an understanding of individuals' needs and concerns.

We can support you with

- Housing applications
- Brokerage for counselling
- Identifying pathways to, and gaining, employment
- Accessing vocational and higher education courses
- Reconnecting with family and culture
- Independent Living Skills
- Maintaining healthy relationships
- Accessing State Care records and supported release of information
- Grants Information and Applications
- Therapeutic and social groups
- Connect with various related services that can assist you
- Advocacy

Note: PCSS is not a crisis management service; our staff will refer clients experiencing a crisis to professional crisis management services.
