

Victims of Crime Counselling and Support

Trauma-based counselling and peer support for adult and child victims of crime as they move through the criminal justice process.

Have you experienced harm as a result of a crime? Do you need counselling and support?

Counselling and support is available for:

- Anyone directly harmed by a crime
- Anyone harmed as a result of witnessing a crime
- Parents or caregivers of children harmed by crime
- Relatives of a person who has died or suffered harm as a result of a crime.

The counselling provided is to help deal with the effects of the crime. To access this service the crime must have been reported to the police, GP, or other professional.

This is a confidential and free service available state-wide. Counselling and support is delivered face to face, by telephone or online video appointment. We also provide phone counselling via TTY and TIS.
