

Counselling Service Referral Form

Program Description

rebuild - Counselling for Victims of Crime provides therapeutic counselling to support people who have been impacted by a crime, whilst they navigate the criminal justice process. The crime may be violent or non-violent and includes family and domestic violence and sexual assault.

We provide counselling for anyone directly harmed by the crime, harmed as a result of witnessing the crime, parents or caregivers harmed as a result of harm against their child or relatives of a person who has died or suffered harm as a result of crime.
